THE BREVITY BASKET.

Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

Arthur M. Mackey was yesterday admitted to practice at the bar of the district, on motion of Mr. Mackey.

Carrie Towles, convicted of stealing a watch, was yesterday sentenced to one year in the Albany penitentiary.

Morilla M. Ricker was yesterday appointed examiner in chancery and United States commissioner by the court in banc.

Isaiah Lewis was acquitted in the criminal court yesterday of the charge of fraudulently obtaining $5 from Margaret Robinson.

In the case of the Northern Liberty Market company against Steinhilber and Prather, in which a verdict was rendered in favor of the defendant Wednesday, a motion for a new trial was filed yesterday.

The Healy branch of the Irish National League will give a grand ball at Forrest hall on the twenty-fifth instant. The committee in charge of it intend to make it in all respects an elegant and enjoyable affair.

Adolphus Burgess, convicted of housebreaking, was sentenced to six months in jail in the criminal court yesterday. Isaiah Johnson, convicted for the same offense, was sentenced to three years in the Albany penitentiary.

In the case of Frank B. Smith against Susan Birch et al., Judge MacArthur, in the equity court, yesterday directed that a writ of assistance be issued on the petition of Job Barnard, trustee, that the property be delivered to the purchaser, Mary Roca.

Oecenia E. Dyson, by her attorneys, yesterday filed a bill for divorce against Abraham W. Dyson. They were married in 1863, and nine children have been born to them. She charged cruelty, citing instances of his violent treatment of her, and desertion.

At a meeting of the employees of the adjacent general's office, war department, held yesterday, resolutions of respect and condolence were adopted as a mark of respect to their late associate, Mr. William Goldsborough, who died on the morning of the twentieth instant.

LAWYERS will gladly learn that Brougham, the great English barrister, was always careful of his throat; and, further, that Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is the best remedy for bronchitis and other throat troubles.

Held for Manslaughter.

Mr. John W. Wallace was put on trial in the police court yesterday for manslaughter in causing the death of J. T. Caldwell on the third of this month by driving over him. A number of witnesses, including medical experts, were examined, and Mr. Wallace also gave his testimony, all of which was submitted at the corner's request.

The court said that the case would have to go to the grand jury, not because he (the court) found the defendant guilty of any crime, but because it was a case for a jury to pass upon, and, as death had occurred, the case was practically out of his jurisdiction. The court said he held the case without prejudice. Mr. Cahill said he had authorities to the effect that a person driving at less than fifteen miles could not be held for manslaughter. He was allowed to go out and get his employer, Mr. Shaw, to come in and give security for him.

MOTHER SWAN'S WORM SYRUP, tasteless, effective; 25c.

Mrs. Neagle's Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs. J. L. Neagle, of South Carolina, took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at her late residence, the Waverly house. The services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Pare, of Epiphany church. The floral offerings were very beautiful, including a column of roses, a pillow of roses, with the words "My Wife," another pillow, with the words "Mama," and several crosses of the choicest flowers. The remains were deposited in a handsome casket. The funeral was attended by a large number of the friends of the family. The following named gentlemen acted as pall bearers: Col. W. E. Earle, Col. James P. Low, W. H. Patterson, H. P. Montague, T. M. Wilkes, and George A. Darling. The deceased leaves two grown sons and one daughter, aged 9 years.

For purity and delicate flavor "Sweet Bouquet" Cigarettes have no equal.

Convicted of a Crime Done When Drunk.

William B. Moran, the man who was brought here from New York and indicted for burglary and larceny committed two years ago, was on trial in the criminal court yesterday. The evidence clearly showed that the defendant had committed the offense while intoxicated. In his charge, which was quite lenient, Judge Wiley said that consideration should be made as Moran, who he said did not look like a professional criminal, was drunk. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty, with a recommendation for mercy. A notice in arrest of judgment was filed by Moran's attorney. Moran's aged mother was one of the spectators, and gave vent to grief at times.

A Bill for Maintenance.

Hattie F. Coombs yesterday filed a bill for maintenance against Charles C. Coombs. The declaration sets forth that they were lawfully married in April, 1882. In June, 1883, she filed a bill for divorce, alleging cruelty, but by reason of her inability to corroborate her statements the case was dismissed. Since that time he has not contributed to her support, and she prays that a decree be passed compelling him to provide for the maintenance of herself and child.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to William Bartlett Hoover, of Baltimore, and Alice Bockey, of this city; C. H. Kremer, of Baltimore, and Julia C. Devine, of Richmond, Va.; John Simms and Missouri Javins, Walter R. Patterson and Nellie F. Cato, John R. Gramme and Hattie H. Baxter, Edward Jackson and George Rich, Joseph B. Wiseman and Dora W. Goldenstrath, of Bladensburg, Md.

The Chimes To-Day.

At noon, from 12 to 1 o'clock, Prof. Widows will ring a merry peal, fire a national salute on the bells in honor of the day, and play a selection of national airs and other popular melodies, with selections from the operas of "Tannhauser," "Chimes of Normandy," "Bohemian Girl," and "Faust."

A Presbyterian Organ.

A force of workmen are engaged in the Metropolitan Presbyterian church, Capitol hill, erecting a platform and gallery for the large organ for the church, which is expected in a few days. The instrument cost about $2,500, and will be a vast improvement to the already handsome interior of the church.
